Form 4 IB Preparatory Year Choice of Subjects Form

The Preparatory Year is a school-based one-year course at St. Paul's Co-educational College prior to the International Baccalaureate Diploma Programme in F5 and F6. It is not part of or affiliated to the International Baccalaureate Programme and is not a prerequisite to follow the IBDP.

The medium of instruction in the Preparatory Year is English. The curriculum consists of four compulsory academic subjects, three electives and an experiential learning component. As the objective of the Preparatory Year is to provide students with the academic basis for further studies of the subjects in the IBDP, applicants will have to indicate their choice of subjects in the following:

Compulsory subjects: English
Chinese *
Mathematics
Independent Learning and Thinking

* An adapted Chinese curriculum for those who are not educated in a local primary school.

Choose three electives from each of the following three groups. Please indicate your choice by putting a tick in the box next to the subject.
