London Mozart Players

INTERNATIONAL MUSIC CONFERENCE 2019: Side-by-side with London Mozart Players is a four-day residency project that brings 12 professional players from London where they work intensively with students from St. Paul's Co-educational College and Primary School as well as five other schools in coaching and rehearsals, culminating in a side-by-side performance of the magnificent Beethoven Seventh Symphony, among other symphonic classics!

St. Paul's Co-educational College (SPCC)

In the Christian spirit of Faith, Hope and Love, SPCC sets out to nurture students as future leaders. It seeks to provide them with the best opportunities for learning and personal development and helps them broaden their horizons, realise their potential and develop positive values and attitudes through a wide range of educational programmes. SPCC enjoys a long and rich musical tradition; where in recent years, various music groups from the school have toured Australia, China, Vietnam, South Korea, Germany, Austria, Latvia and South Africa. The College was the recipient of Yale University's Cultural Leadership Citation in 2016.

London Mozart Players (LMP)

Celebrating its 70th Anniversary this season and founded by Harry Blech in 1949 as the UK's first chamber orchestra, LMP has achieved international renown for its outstanding live performances and CD recordings of the core classical repertoire. In addition to the regular offerings of concerts and recordings, LMP has been committed to providing a platform for sharing the creative arts with schools and communities for over 25 years. LMP Voyager is an education and community hub which allows music to inspire, educate & enrich communities through an extensive programme of work across the UK and abroad.
