Recruitment of Chinese Percussion Instructor

SPCC is seeking a dedicated and qualified Chinese Percussion Instructor to conduct instrumental classes for our students. The instructor will focus on foundational to advanced technique, rhythm training, and traditional repertoire in a class setting.

Key Responsibilities

- Conduct weekly group instrumental classes in Chinese percussion.
- Teach proper playing technique, posture, notation reading, and rhythmic accuracy.
- Help students build a strong instrumental foundation and prepare for ensemble progression, examinations, or internal performances.
- Monitor student progress and maintain a supportive, disciplined learning environment.

Qualifications & Requirements

- Academic Background: A degree in Music (majoring in Chinese Percussion, or a related discipline) is highly preferred.
- Experience: Proven track record of group instrumental teaching, particularly with school-age students.
- Skills: Good communication skills and patience in guiding beginner to intermediate learners

Applicants are invited to apply by submitting an application letter, a resume showing current and expected salary, and video recordings or links of recent rehearsals and performances, by email to recruit@spcc.edu.hk or by post to The Principal, St. Paul's Co-educational College, 33 MacDonnell Road, Hong Kong on or before 10 October 2026. Please mark "Confidential" and specify the post you apply for on the envelope. Only shortlisted candidates will be invited for an interview. Candidates will be required to undergo Sexual Conviction Record Check (SCRC).

(All enquiries and applications will be treated in strict confidence and only used for employment related purposes.)
